ABC-CLIO Reference Title Wins 2016 Distinguished Book Award

Germany at War: 400 Years of Military History recognized by the Society for Military History

Santa Barbara, Calif. (Feb. 12, 2016) – Germany at War: 400 Years of Military History has been awarded the 2016 Distinguished Book Award for Reference by the Society for Military History. Released by ABC-CLIO in late 2014, Germany at War: 400 Years of Military History is the work of editor David T. Zabecki and coeditors William H. Van Husen, Carl O. Schuster, and Marcus O. Jones.

The Distinguished Book Awards, now in their 30th year, honor outstanding works in military history, reference, and biography/memoir published in the last three years. Germany at War: 400 Years of Military History was recognized alongside three other titles as 2016 award winners by the Society for Military History, an over 80-year-old organization best known for its Journal of Military History.

Germany at War: 400 Years of Military History is an authoritative four-volume resource that spans the Thirty Years' War in 1618 through the present day. Biographies of significant military leaders; examinations of noteworthy battles, weapons, and strategies; and more than 70 primary source documents come together to create the most comprehensive overview of German military history to ever appear in English. The set features contributions from historians around the world, plus the expertise of editor David T. Zabecki and his team of coeditors.

Germany at War: 400 Years of Military History (hardcover, $415.00) is available for direct purchase at www.abc-clio.com and through all major distributors.
