

NEW Professional Development Resources for K-12 Librarians & Educators

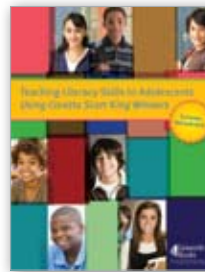

978-1-58683-347-3
 2009, 160 pages
 $39.95

Research-Based Reading Strategies in the Library for Adolescent Learners

Carianne Bernadowski and Patricia Kolencik

Make a difference in your secondary school!

- Learn your role in both comprehension and vocabulary support instruction.
- Find the strategies and standards that fall easily within the realm of library programming and instruction.
- Get assessment tools and reproducibles you can use in your library classroom.

978-1-58683-337-4
 2009, 160 pages
 $39.95

Teaching Literacy Skills to Adolescents Using Coretta Scott King Winners

Carianne Bernadowski

Promote strong literacy skills in adolescents with lessons and activities based on Coretta Scott King Award-winning books!

- Get reproducible standards-based, pedagogically sound lessons that are ready to teach, and sure to motivate secondary students.
- Learn research-based reading and writing strategies and activities.

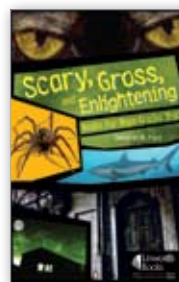

978-1-58683-342-8
 2009, 96 pages
 $34.95

Building Parent Engagement in Schools

Larry Ferlazzo with Lorie Hammond

Help increase academic achievement in low-income and urban communities with this parent engagement handbook!

- Discover the roles of media specialists, teachers and administrators in engaging parents in our schools.
- Pick up practical tips like using technology for parent outreach, such as student-created audiocasts.
- Find research documenting the connection between parent engagement and student success—and watch your test scores rise.

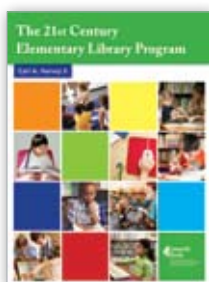

978-1-58683-344-2
 2009, 180 pages
 $36.95

Scary, Gross, and Enlightening Books for Boys Grades 3-12

Deborah B. Ford

Finally—a book to help educators lure boy readers in grades 3-12 with sure-fire reading pleasers!

- Locate new and award-winning titles from many different genres that boys (and other reluctant readers) will want to read.
- Discover research-based teaching strategies for many of these books for use in all content areas that can be used in the library or media center.

978-1-58683-381-7
 2009, 125 pages
 $39.95

The 21st Century Elementary Library Program

Carl A. Harvey

At last! The definitive how-to book on school libraries has arrived!

- Written by an award-winning school library media specialist who knows his way around elementary school libraries.
- Find all the resource/reference information you need to run an exemplary elementary school library.
- Strategically-focused on standards and integrating technology.

978-1-58683-343-5
 2009, 100 pages
 $39.95

MLA Made Easy Citation Basics for Beginners

Marilyn Heath

Teach MLA Format in a concise, accurate manner using this handy guide!

- Help students doing research (even reluctant readers) understand the importance of creating accurate, complete citations for every source used in their research.
- Find complete guidelines for fully formatted citations.
- Discover common sources from reference books to Web sites as well as examples of online databases, magazines, interviews, and videos.

978-1-58683-392-3
 2009, 200 pages
 $40.00

School Libraries Head for the Edge Rants, Recommendations, and Reflections

Doug Johnson

Enjoy and benefit from a collection of Doug Johnson's popular Library Media Connection columns.

- Compiles the writings of one of today's foremost experts on library media and technology in education.
- Ranges across a number of crucial topics, including practical, technical, theoretical, and philosophical matters.
- Offers an authoritative look at library and educational media, including the impact of Web 2.0.

978-1-58683-349-7
 2009, 90 pages
 $30.00

Collaborative Units that Work TEAMS Award Winners

Kate Vande Brake, Editor

Discover award-winning collaborative projects by K-12 media specialists and teachers.

- Easy-to-use lessons to implement with students in elementary, middle, and high schools.
- Demonstrates the educational power of real collaboration between teachers and librarians.
- Expert support from the educators who created the projects.